

DUNK & DONATE BGR PLAYERS

David Fountain

17 | LES NYC | 2 years at BGR

“BGR makes you feel part of a team. It gives us a sense of security and a safe place to play basketball.”

Christopher Munoz

12 | Alphabet City NYC | 3 years at BGR

“I’ve learned the importance of good sportsmanship in games, no matter if you lose or win.”

Aeneas Green

15 | Alphabet City NYC | 2 years at BGR

“Team building and composure in tough situations is the most valuable lesson I’ve learned at BGR.”

Norqui Munoz

16 | Alphabet City NYC | 10+ years at BGR

“Never give up, even when it’s over – that’s what BGR has taught me.”

Emarquis Jones

12 | Alphabet City NYC | 5 years at BGR

“I’ve learned the fundamentals of basketball because of BGR, which help make me a well-rounded student and player.”

Nicholas Natal

14 | Alphabet City NYC | 2 years at BGR

“BGR has taught me to keep working hard, because hard work beats talent, and when talent fails to work hard.”

Jared Lebrun

12 | Alphabet City NYC | 5 years at BGR

“My time at BGR has given me the opportunity to become a great player with even greater grades.”

Angel Polanco

16 | Highbridge, BX | 1 year at BGR

“At BGR teammates can turn into family. BGR means family to me.”

Ceaquan Manso

17 | Alphabet City NYC | 4 years at BGR

“BGR has taught me to be more responsible both on and off the court.”

Victoria Udechi

16 | LES NYC | 5 years at BGR

“Whether you’re a boy or a girl, at BGR if you work hard on the basketball court you can be great.”

Stevenson Moore, Jr.

19 | Alphabet City NYC | 1.5 years at BGR

“BGR is a place where you can come to show your talent in many things and get acknowledged for it.”

Naim Wilson

17 | Alphabet City NYC | 1 year at BGR

“BGR is a place where I can come to and know I’ll always be invited in with open arms.”