From the Henry Street Parent Center:

For children and families, Valentine's Day on February 14th is a day to celebrate with your children and tell your loved ones the things you appreciate about them and how much you LOVE them. Whether roses or candy, Valentine's Day cards or expressions of kindness and gratitude, there are lots of ways to make this day special and so we share a link to 20 Valentine's Day games for kids and activities for the family.
