The Art Show Frequently Asked Questions

Benefit Preview

Wednesday, November 1

7:30 p.m.

Q: Will there be food and drinks?

A: Yes! Guests at the Benefit Preview enjoy a complimentary full bar of both alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages as well as passed and stationed appetizers.

Q: What is the dress code?

A: The dress code is “festive attire.” Guests wear a wide range of formal attire, with many people choosing to wear fun, exciting items from their closets that they may not get to wear frequently! Please avoid casual clothing such as sneakers and jeans.

Q: Can I bring a guest?

A: No, unfortunately Henry Street can accommodate only one 7:30 entry ticket per staff member. However, we are thrilled to offer discounted tickets for $100, instead of the standard $175, that you may extend to anyone in your network. The link to purchase those discounted tickets is here, under “Young Collectors Preview Entry.” We appreciate any help getting the word out to bring more people and support to the event!

Q: How do I get there?

A: The Art Show is located at the Park Avenue Armory at 643 Park Avenue. There are a variety of transportation options, including the 6 train at 68th Street and Lexington Avenue and F and Q trains at 63rd Street and Lexington Avenue. More information can be found here.

Q: Who attends The Art Show?

A: The party is attended by about 2,000 guests, including Henry Street’s Board of Directors, generous donors, corporate and foundation partners, and many leaders from the art and business communities.
